ADAMS, FELLOWS. I am searching for descendants of John/Jonathan and Margaret Ellen ADAMS who migrated to Eugene area from Wisconsin in 1901. I know they are still there in Lane County as I visited cousins Jesse and Ted ADAMS (brothers) in 1985 and have a copy of the "story" written by another brother, George ADAMS, back in the 1960's. John and Margaret ADAMS are buried at Mulkey Cemetery. I have extensive information about them and the greater ADAMS family who originated in Greene County, PA in the early 1800s. John and Margaret moved first to Marshall County, West Virginia and then to Clark County, Wisconsin. I am of their son, Charles Lindsay ADAMS, who landed in Seattle when the rest of the family went to Eugene. John ADAMS descends from Archibald H. and Catherine ADAMS, both b. 1806. Other children include Jacob, Charles b. 1828, William H. b. 1828, Henry Porter b. 1840 and possibly Eleanor. I am in contact with cousins descended from Charles and I am also directly descended from William H. ADAMS. William's daughter, Hannah Nancy ADAMS married Charles Lindsay ADAMS. I am looking forward to hearing from one or more of those whom we refer to up here as "The Oregon Adamses." I have some ADAMS family information on my home page at Descendants of Archibald H. and Catherine Adams of Greene County, Pennsylvania if you want to sneak a peek before you contact me. HAYWARD, EVANS. This is an unusual request. I need to find DNA from female relatives of Audrey Winifred HAYWARD so her son, David Burton EVANS, who was killed in the Korean War might be identified and his remains identified and buried in a family plot. Here's what we know. On 10 July 1929 in the Church of Christ parsonage in Santa Clara, Lane Co., Oregon, Audrey Winifred HAYWARD was married to Ernest Henry EVANS. Witness was Elaine M. HAYWARD. Then on 16 Oct 1930 in the Allen Maternity Home in Reno, Washoe Co., Nevada, David Burton EVANS was born. His mother's age was listed as 17 years and father was 26. His mother's birthplace was listed as Ohio and his dad's is Canada. David Burton EVAN's half-sister has asked me to help her locate any female blood relatives of his mother to get DNA and thus have positive identification of his remains. McFALL, McQUEEN, HOWELL. I am seeking information regarding the McFALL, McQUEEN and HOWELL families who lived 1870- in Lane County. Mary C. McFALL, a widow, married Stephen

HOWELL at her home in Lane Co. on 31 Aug 1873. Austin HOWELL, son of Stephen, married S. Jane McFALL, daughter of Mary C. McFALL at her home on 31 Aug 1873. G. H. McQUEEN attested that he knew Austin and S. J. -- his son Frank calls himself a cousin of S. Jane McFALL HOWELL.

I find no McFALLs in Lane Co. 1870 census. G. H. McQueen is there. Mary C. McFALL is widow of Samuel T. McFALL who died before 1873, probably in Harrison Co. MO. I assume at this time that William Benjamin McFALL, George McFALL, Sarah/Susan McFALL are siblings of S. Jane McFALL. William McFALL is in Spokane Co. WA Territory by 1877. A letter dated 1894 from Frank McQUEEN to S. Jane McFALL HOWELL states that "your mother is going back with Billy (William McFALL) and Calista (his wife)," but I can't find Mary C. McFALL HOWELL under either surname in WA Territory between 1883-89. Nancie Howell Willey Wed Jul 2 22:14:44 1997

His funeral was from the Emerald Baptist Church in Eugene, on Saturday, Oct. 2, 1976. If anyone knows of this family, I would appreciate hearing from you. Orr's grandfather was Robert James Orr McGOWAN, the oldest of six children of Alexander Orr McGOWAN and Margaret MCKITTRICK McGOWAN, who came from County Down, Ireland, in 1849. Robert's brother was my great grandfather, David Alexander McGOWAN, who eventually settled in Ladysmith, WI, and died in 1932. Pat McGowan Bartos Sun Sep 10 19:56:46 2000

MATHEWS, WARNOCK. Hi, I am trying to find out information on my g-grandmother May or Mary MATHEWS. I believe her parents are Vernon Byron and Anna. May married Lewis Leslie WARNOCK, I believe in Eugene, Oregon. She had two children, Claire and Byron William who was born in Eugene April 1, 1914. I know my g-grandfather and his brothers owned several buildings in Eugene, and had a feed store which his father William Jasper started. It is now, I believe, by the courthouse. Anyone with information on May, please e-mail me. She left my grandfather when he was around two and a Rose FINNEGAN helped raise him. Somewhere along the way there is a Clyde LOVE in the picture but not sure how or why. I am trying to find all information I can on my g-grandmother; my grandfather searched for her up until the day he passed, so now I and mother are trying to make his wish come true and find family, and let him rest. Please help if you can. Thanks in advance. Robin Mon Feb 2 03:59:50 1998

MEEK, RENARD, JOHNSON, FARRIS. George Washington MEEK, 1825-1864, was murdered on the Canyon City Trail September, 1864 by Henry DEDMON who was subsequently hung for the crime. I need information on wife Margaret RENARD/RENNER. Was Lydia JOHNSON his wife? Her children and Margaret's were born in the same time frame. Lydia's children were JOHNSONS until George's death when they became MEEK. George's brother, Samuel, married Sarah JOHNSON HICKS, Lydia's sister. Arlington, George's son, said Samuel left no heirs. Arlington was living with Lydia in 1870. Lydia's son Schuyler (Squire) said that Lydia was married to George MEEK in Illinois in 1851, not to Margaret. Margaret MEEK married William FARRIS and moved to the Applegate Valley. George's daughter, Isabell, married John Amon LEWMAN in 1876, my gg-grandparents. MOSHER, REEMSnyder, DEWITT. I am looking for information regarding the MOSHER family that lived in Eugene from at least 1900 to 1972. Samuel R. MOSHER (b. 20 Jan 1876 d. 22 Apr 1959 Eugene, Oregon; sp: Edith _____ (b. 10 Feb 1889 d. Jul 1979 Florence, Oregon) migrated from eastern Nebraska, presumably Lincoln, around 1900. Sam may have been accompanied by his parents--Marquis (Marcus) Joseph MOSHER and Harriet L. (REEMSnyder) MOSHER. We have not been able to locate any death or burial records for Sam's parents in Nebraska so our best guess is that Marquis and Harriet moved to, and died, in Oregon. Within a couple of years, Sam's brother (Hiram Garfield MOSHER) and family had also made the trek to Oregon from Nebraska. Hiram and Elnora (DEWITT) MOSHER had at least two children in Eugene: Dewitt Charles (1904) and Frank Leonard (1905). Hiram and family returned to Lincoln, Nebraska in the early 1910s by way of San Bernadino, California.

We know that Samuel and his wife Edith had no children, but that she had several nieces and nephews. We'd like to make contact with these relatives-by-marriage if possible. Edith, who was a specialist in linguistics (it may have been anthropological linguistics) and taught at the University in Eugene, is known to have kept a lot of records regarding the Mosher family. She also published several books within her professional field of study. We also know that Samuel was a 33rd Degree

Mason. He was honored near the end of his life (mid to late 1950s) for having been a 33rd Degree Mason for 33 years with a lavish celebration in Eugene that the actor Harold Lloyd supposedly attended. We would love to know more about this event, if possible. Anne Mosher Fri May 26 13:16:20 2000

SOVERNS, BLACHLEY. I am looking for any information on Jesse SOVERNS, who migrated from Ohio to Indiana to Illinois to Lane County, Oregon in 1852. He had a son George SOVERNS, who married Elizabeth BLACHLEY. George and Elizabeth were listed in the Pioneer Association of Lane County--those who arrived in Oregon before 1853. A George SOVERNS has an estate file in the State Archives, dated 1900. Elizabeth SOVERNS has estate file there for 1908. I'm assuming those years are their dates of death. There is also an estate file for a Lois SOVERNS, 1920 and a guardianship file for Melissa SOVERNS, 1863. Was Melissa a daughter of Jesse? Did Jesse die 1863? Who is Lois? There is a young Jesse SOVERNS and wife Eva listed in 1880 Census, Lane County. Is this Jesse son of George? Thanks in advance for any help or clues. Patsy Skeels Sat Feb 13 00:39:11 1999

URQUHART. We are looking for a cousin, William URQUHART, an Englishman who moved to Eugene, Oregon, married and had two daughters. His wife had to be committed to a mental institution in middle age. He worked for the post office. He visited his cousins in England several times in the nineteen twenties. We assume he died and was buried in Eugene. We do not know IF his daughters married, so obviously we do not know married names. There is no IGI listing for him, so any tracing will have to be local. Unfortunately, we do not know the wife's name or if she was English or American; however, there would seem to be a number of possibilities: URQUHART (or soundex equivalent) marriages, obituaries, burials, etc.; telephone directory listings for the 1920s; postal employee listings; naturalization; passport application(s). We are trying to find his mother's maiden name. M. Buchmann Tue Sep 21 11:55:44 1999

WRIGHT, BAILEY, MATLOCK, WEAVER. Elizabeth and Jackson WRIGHT are my husband's ancestors. Elizabeth was born in Clay Co., Kentucky in 1826 and Jackson was born in Spencer Co., Indiana in 1820. They married in Benton Co., Oregon in 1851 and are in the 1860 census of Douglas Co., Oregon. I would like to know if they are in the census earlier in Lane County? Jackson had children before Elizabeth BAILEY and I would like to know who his first wife was? Elizabeth MATLOCK m. a Jackson WRIGHT b. in MO and they also came to Douglas County but they are not our relatives like we thought, since our Jackson was born in Indiana. Elizabeth had a daughter named Jane Angelina BAILEY born 1848/ 1849. Did Elizabeth have another daughter named Sarah Ann BAILEY born 1845? Jackson WRIGHT is in presence at his daughter's wedding named Harriet in 1859 in Douglas County and for Sarah's wedding, too, the same day. Harriet and Sarah both marry WEAVER cousins. I was wondering if Sarah and Harriet are step daughters? If not, is Sarah Ezekiel's daughter or one of the other BAILEY relatives' daughters who came to Douglas County, too? Jackson has two sisters, one is Elizabeth who m. John BAILEY, and another is Nancy who m.'s Ezekiel BAILEY. There are so many puzzles to this genealogy. If anyone knows more about the above, I would sure like hearing from you.
